

Underwater Adventure Seekers Spring Dive
Riviera Beach/Blue Heron Bridge

TRIP DATES - March 21-24

Here is the draft agenda:

Thursday - March 21 - Arrival (if everyone arrives early, this can be a day at the beach)

Friday - March 22 - 10:00 a.m. - two tank dive with Narcosis Divers

Friday - March 22 - Pick up tanks/weights from Force E Dive Shop for Saturday Dive/beach time or stroll through city

Friday - March 22 - 6:30 p.m. - reception - sponsored by Riviera Beach City Council

Saturday, March 23 - 7:00 a.m. - Blue Heron Bridge Dive

Saturday, March 23- 1:00 p.m. - two tank dive with Narcosis Divers

Here is the biggest issue - transportation will be needed while there. So, depending on the number of people a van will need to be rented. Below are some preliminary numbers:

BWI - FLL $300 roundtrip (Jet Blue) (50 miles north)

DCA - FLL $250 roundtrip (Spirit)

DCA-PBI $475 roundtrip (American)

DCA-PBI $532 roundtrip (Jet Blue)

Van Rental from either airport $300-$350 (Alamo) 7/8 passenger

Hotel $200 per double room (Best Western Plus) with 10 rooms minimum. Includes full breakfast

$80 for two-tank dives with Narcosis plus tip

$5.50 for weights from Force E

$10.00 for tank from Force E

This is open to divers and non-divers as there is lots to do around the town. A non-diver who can be the shuttle driver will be fantastic.

I have to have commitments by the end of January as the Narcosis boat will only allow 26 divers. This is a 5-dive trip, so it satisfies UAS requirement.

Sunday, March 24 - Departure (if late departure - more beach time)

Erik Denson will lead the Saturday morning Bridge Dive.
